

Spaced Out

Real estate matters on Long Island

Stores, gas station sold by Silber

Fri, May 1, 2009

Featured posts, Real Estate

The boys at Syosset-based Silber Investment Properties keep inking those deals.

An 8,800-square-foot CVS Drug Store in Garden City sold for $4.37 million. Adam Silber, Clem Cote, and Anthony Ciafardoni of Silber Investment represented both the purchaser and seller in the transaction.

A 7-Eleven and laundromat in Hicksville was sold to a private investor for $1.3 million. Ciafardoni and Silber represented both sides in the deal.

A free-standing Shell Station in East Setauket went for slightly more than $1 million. Silber brokers Frank Caporrino and Jerry Mancini represented both purchaser and seller.

 Silber Investment Properties

This post was written by:

David Winzelberg - who has written 503 posts on Spaced Out.

 Contact the author