

INWOOD'S BURNSIDE PLAZA SOLD. The Burnside Plaza Shopping Center in Inwood has been sold to a joint venture owned by Alan Rosenberg, president of the Manhattan-based Alrose Group LLC and an entity owned by Vornado Realty Trust. The 100,000-square-foot shopping center at 561-503 Burnside Ave. and anchored by a Stop & Shop was sold by Lawrence Oaks LP, said Adam Silber, of Great Neck-based Silber Investment properties, who brokered the deal. Terms of the deal, which closed on Wednesday, were not disclosed. Vornado said earlier this week the deal was pending. — ALAN J. WAX
